

2 Months Free

Test the Waters

A new market is ready for your business.

Exclusive to our Office clients, we're offering two months free membership of the Virtual Office package to expand your business to a new market.

Take advantage of Servcorp's global network across 160+ locations. It's the ideal way to ensure a professional presence, and access to local facilities without the costly expense of a physical office. Access your Servcorp Community and contact experts in the city that you choose.

- A prestigious address for your marketing materials.
- A local phone number answered by a dedicated local receptionist and handle calls as you instruct.
- Access to meeting and conferencing facilities when you need them.
- Professional support team to look after your administrative tasks.
- 3 days free private office usage across the globe as you travel.
- 3 hours per day Coworking Lounge usage.
- First two months free with no further obligation. Month by month flexibility.

Testing the waters in a new market without the overheads of establishing a physical presence has never been so easy.

